

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NO 2014-027

Your request has now been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) and we provide our response below.

You asked:

Can you please tell me in the recent gun amnesty what are the figures for guns that were replicas, inert, obsolete calibres, antiques, guns that can legally be held in the UK, and guns that cannot be legally held. Of the guns that were antique what happened to them as in pictures released to the press it clearly showed guns that were antique and don't require a licence to own in the UK.

Your request for information has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) and our response is as follows:

As the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner does not hold any of the information that you have requested, I have referred your request to Dorset Police for their consideration. The Force will be in contact with you shortly to acknowledge this transfer of your request.