

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NO 2016-012

Your request has now been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) and we provide our response below.

You asked:

- 1. How many of the police officers in your force area work on the operational frontline? How many were on the operational frontline on January 1st 2012?
- 2. How many police stations have closed in your area since you took office?
- 3. Could you provide details of how often Home Office ministers have made an official visit to you in your capacity as Police and Crime Commissioner? Specifically, I would like to know the date of the visit, who the minister was, and what was the official purpose of that visit.

Your request for information has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) and our response is as follows:

1. No information held.
2. No information held.

The information requested regarding frontline police officers and closures of police stations relate to operational policing matters. Any relevant information would therefore be held by Dorset Police rather than the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner (OPCC). You can contact the Dorset Police Freedom of Information office as follows:
