

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NO 2016-014

Your request has now been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) and we provide our response below.

You asked:

For each financial year since the position was created how much has the Office of Police and Crime Commissioner had to pay out in fines as a result of parking tickets issued to company cars?

Your request for information has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) and our response is as follows:

No information held.

Parking fines are a personal liability, whether issued to a private vehicle being used for business purposes or in a work provided vehicle. The amount paid by the OPCC is therefore nil.
