

We are an independent charity offering free and confidential support to anyone affected by crime.

Support is available whether or not the incident is reported to the police, and you can access the service even if you're not the direct victim.

Our service provides tailored, structured support designed to meet the needs and personal journey of each victim. We are dedicated to offering flexible support options for those affected by crime.

Our services include custom support for children and young people aged 4 and above.

Our team can support for Standard Risk Domestic Abuse by providing support, risk assessments, safety planning and reassurance in a non-judgmental way. Our caseworkers work with other agencies across the area to provide the highest quality of support for individuals.

Whether it is in-person meetings, phone support, online sessions, or group sessions; we offer a variety of options to ensure victims are comfortable and supported every step of the way.

Our team and dedicated caseworkers travel countywide to provide support across the whole of Dorset.

TAILORED 1-1 SUPPORT

Our team of trained caseworkers offers one-to-one support, delivering personalised, confidential guidance to those affected by crime. This structured, tailored support can help individuals navigate their unique challenges, assisting them in coping, recovering, and ultimately moving forward from their experiences.

Support from our trained Caseworkers can help process and navigate the complex emotions following a crime.

GROUP WORK

Led by a trained facilitator, offering a safe, understanding environment where victims of crime can connect with others, share experiences, and receive validation and practical assistance on their journey to healing.
